Stephen Trigg has represented clients in a wide variety of civil litigation matters in both state and federal courts, including cases involving complex financial transactions, shareholder class actions, and breach of contract disputes. In addition, he regularly defends financial institutions from claims arising under the Fair Debt Collections Practices Act, the Wisconsin Consumer Act, and other consumer protection laws. Mr. Trigg also has significant experience with personal injury litigation, defending parties from truck accident and other negligence based claims.

Prior to joining Gass Weber Mullins LLC, Mr. Trigg practiced with Paul Hastings LLP in New York City. At that firm, he represented multiple companies and their boards of directors in shareholder disputes alleging breaches of fiduciary duties and securities law violations. He also represented some of the world's biggest financial institutions in litigation resulting from the credit crisis.

Mr. Trigg is admitted to practice in New York and Wisconsin, and the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin. He is also a member of the American Bar Association.

Mr. Trigg obtained his undergraduate degree cum laude from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and his law degree from the University of Minnesota Law School, where he graduated magna cum laude and was a member of the Order of the Coif. While at Minnesota,

Mr. Trigg was a member of the Journal of International Law and worked as a student attorney at the Multi-Profession Business Law Clinic. In the clinic, he counseled clients on business formation and incorporation issues and drafted form contracts for new businesses.
